

Explore Ralston!

---

1 Start off on the right foot

I would begin my day at Sojourn Cafe on Main Street for breakfast. It's quiet, quaint and serves breakfast only on weekends.

2 Support local

Just a block east on S. 77th Street are some small shops like Hearthside Candles & Curios, Ground Zero Comic Book shop, and a fresh meat market on Park Drive

3 Time for a ride

Bring your bicycle and travel just a small ways on 77th Street to get on the Ralston trail that connects to Wildwood Park (west) and Seymour Smith Park (east) via the Big Papio Creek Trail past Fun-Plex on Q Street.

4 You must have worked up an appetite!

Come back to downtown Ralston to grab Mexican food at Maria's for house-made, fried taco shells unlike any other.

5 Drinks anyone?

The Village Bar could be the best dive bar in town. Or, go further east on Main Street to Bushwacker's Saloon & Dance Hall for some cowboys and country — and don't forget to ride the mechanical bull. YEE-HAW!

A very special thanks to our contributor: Lynn & Kacie

---

Share Your Experience With Us!
@OmahaYP #Intro2omaha